

IRISH TO BATTLE DEMOCRATS OVER "FREEDOM" PLANK

ATTACK SECTION RELATING TO INDEPENDENCE OF ERIN WHICH ONLY EXTENDS TO PEOPLE A VOTE OF SYMPATHY FOR THEIR CAUSE.

San Francisco, July 2.—Under the plank adopted late yesterday by the platform committee the Democratic party would express sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people for self-government and pledge such action in the matter as would be consistent with international usage and comity.

The action was taken after a long debate, during which the committee rejected the subcommittee plank proposing to leave the question to the league of nations, and voted down the proposal for a plank pledging diplomatic recognition of the Irish republic.

Before the committee acted on the plank Frank P. Walsh, head of the American Commission for Irish Independence, was granted a hearing behind closed doors.

Mr. Walsh advocated a plank pledging the party to diplomatic recognition of the Irish Republic. He said he had been instructed by a caucus of about 200 Irish sympathizers who are convention delegates to say that anything less would be considered an evasion of the issue.

When Senator Walsh came out of the committee he addressed the caucus of Irish sympathizers.

"There is no secret about the fact that the committee has voted not to accept the plank on Ireland offered by the representatives of the Irish people gathered here," he said, "and that it has adopted a substitute."

Under the principle of self-determination, voted by President Wilson, he continued, he would continue to support efforts to get the convention to declare for recognition of Ireland.

"The finest speech before the resolutions committee," continued Senator Walsh, "was made by a Filipino, who said the Philippine Islands wanted independence even though the United States could do more for them than they could for themselves. When I left the committee they were discussing what America can do for the suffering population of Armenia."

Hundreds of delegates who overflowed the caucus room roared approval of making a fight on the convention floor for an unequivocal Irish plank.

A motion was carried at the caucus providing for the appointment of a committee of twenty-eight of the delegates comprising the "recognition caucus" to wait on each of the fourteen presidential nominees or their managers to sound their policy toward recognition.

Mr. Walsh told the caucus that the Irish group had the sympathy of a strong fighting minority within the committee. He urged the delegates to get busy and strengthen their hands.

"Appeal to them to put their minority report before the convention," he said, "and then we can take it up there."

San Francisco, July 2.—There is one tale that is a novelty to many of the delegates. They are allowed vote only once on each ballot.

William J. Bryan has received so many hundreds of telegrams from men saying, "Give us beer" that the poor man must feel like the manager of a brewery on the Fourth of July in this olden times.

When you see the initials "J. W. R." in a newspaper, you may put it down that the "J. W. R." doesn't stand for Josh Wise.

The boys cheered when they passed for half an hour. They couldn't have shown much more enthusiasm if he had resigned.

Now that we've told our own choice of a ticket to Santa Claus and Brer Rabbit, we don't mind giving you our idea of a first-class cabinet:

Secretary of state—Mother Goose.
Secretary of the treasury—Golden Locks.

Secretary of war—Jack the Giant Killer.

Attorney general—Peter Piper.

Postmaster general—Jack Hermer.

Secretary of the navy—Bobbie Shad.

Secretary of the interior—Jonah.

Secretary of agriculture—Jack of the Beanstalk fame.

Secretary of commerce—Simple Simon or Heavy Ford.

Secretary of labor—The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe.

There will always be doubt in any national convention about the adoption of a hard dry plank, but you can always be certain of one or two household planks.

One session of the convention was canceled with two prayers. Still not enough.

The delegates refrained from speaking on account of the women. Now that it's a certainty the women will vote, the boys will go to any length to win them.

Barlison is one of the crowd. The fact that he arrived before the convention adjourned proves he didn't come by mail.

There is a pretty general belief around this town that Glass reflects Wilson.

No man in politics has attended his own funeral as often as Bryan has. And somehow or other he always manages to deliver his own funeral sermon.

This convention won't be so wet that rain checks will be issued.

Yes, we'd pick this paint for your house!

Indeed, we would! If you come to us and say, "What paint is the best for my house?" you'll get just one answer, "Du Pont Paints!"

Reason is simply that we know that Du Pont Paints are the best of the 400 makes of paint that are sold in this country. We have sold a lot of them here to people who were painting everything from entire houses to Kiddie Kars, and they carry the name of a great industrial concern that has always been associated with the biggest and best enterprises in the country, a concern that couldn't afford to have its name on any but a superior product.

When we sell paints to you, we have to be sure that you, our customer, are going to get the best there is. We want your trade next year, too. And we'll tell you frankly there isn't any better paint than Du Pont. We have a FULL line here.

149 ACRES of well improved productive corn land. This farm is located one mile from Utica, Illinois, directly across the river from Starved Rock State Park. The C. O. & P. Ry. Co., and the Starved Rock Ferry Co., have used a portion of this land for several years for a right of way for carrying passengers to and from Starved Rock, but the leases have now expired so that the purchaser can have immediate possession of same. In case he wishes to operate a ferry boat and transfer passengers to and from Starved Rock from the Interurban right of way there will be no objections.

This farm is a good producer and on account of it being located alongside of the Illinois State Park there is no reason why it will not increase in value, as well as net the purchaser a good income.
